Psalm 91

[1] He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. [2] I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust.” [3] For He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly pestilence. [4] He will cover you with His feathers. Under His wings you will take refuge. His faithfulness is your shield and rampart. [5] You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day, [6] nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday. [7] A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it will not come near you. [8] You will only look with your eyes, and see the recompense of the wicked. [9] Because you have made the LORD your refuge, and the Most High your dwelling place, [10] no evil shall happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your dwelling. [11] For He will put His angels in charge of you, to guard you in all your ways. [12] They will bear you up in their hands, so that you won’t dash your foot against a stone. [13] You will tread on the lion and cobra. You will trample the young lion and the serpent underfoot. [14] “Because he has set his love on Me, therefore I will deliver him. I will set him on high, because he has known My name. [15] He will call on Me, and I will answer him. I will be with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and honor him. [16] I will satisfy him with long life, and show him My salvation.”
